MAIL BID SALE - #27

Closing July 28, 2007 Saturday 9:00 PM EST

TERMS OF SALE:

1. There are NO buyer's fees in this sale. What you bid is the most you will pay.

2. Bids above $15.00 will be reduced to 10% over the next highest bid or consignors reserve, up to a maximum of 50%. Bids will not be reduced to less than $15.00.

3. Postage and insurance will be added to all invoices with a minimum charge of $2.00 for packaging, handling and insurance.

4. Invoices for deliver within South Carolina must pay 5% for South Carolina sales tax unless a resale number is supplied. Bidders from other states are responsible for paying any sales / use tax that may be required.

5. Mail bids must be received on or before the closing date of the sale.

6. Mail bidders will be able to set a maximum expenditure limit of $500 or more and use "one lot only" on groups of lots.

7. Email bids must be received by the day before the closing date of the sale. I will acknowledge Email bids. On closing day I will not be able to check Email and those bids risk not being entered. If you do not receive confirmation by sales end you should phone or fax bids.

8. Phone bids will be accepted the week proceeding the sale.

9. You may FAX your bids to my regular number. When I am not home my phone will be set to receive FAX's or voice mail.

10. Phone bidders may request the second high bid but must raise that bid by at least 20% or $5.00, whichever is greater. The sale closes at 9:00 PM EST or until 15 minutes elapse without a call, whichever is later.

11. Estimates which appear after the description are only a guide and lots will often be sold above and below those amounts.

12. A listing of prices realized will be issued after the sale. The list is sent free of charge to successful bidders and all who purchase catalogs, otherwise there is a $3.00 charge.

13. Returns will be accepted on any lots incorrectly described, however, since the majority of this material is consigned all sales will be considered final 7 days after lot delivery.

14. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid or withdraw any lot.

15. Placing a bid in this sale constitutes acceptance of the above terms.

86		105/355 a	R3	VF+	Light spotting. (20-35)
87		105/436 a	R9	MS63	20% Red. Rare George Washington variety, one of just three examples I have seen offered publicly. (200-300)
88		105/436 d	R9	MS63	40% Bright struck in Copper Nickel. George Washington / United Country. (300-400)
89	P	106/432 a	R7	MS64	70% Red with the smallest of planchet clips. George Washington / No Compromise With Traitors. (400-600)
90		107/432 a	R1	VF+	Struck from misalleged dies with obverse about 10% off center with reverse a bit rough and weak as made. (10-20)
91		110/442 a	R1	VF+	Retoned. George Washington. (10-20)
92	P	114B/228 b	Unl	AU+	Retoned from old cleaning. Unlisted Brass variety example of the newly listed 114B die, George Washington The Cincinnatus of America. With the very popular and rare all seeing eye reverse die 228. Ex. PCAC January 1985. (1,200-1,600)
93		117/420 a	R1	AU	10% Red with usual obverse cud. George Washington. (20-35)
94		118/419 a	R5	MS63	10% Red. George Washington with scarce reverse die. Ex. C. Grellman. (150-200)
95		119/398 a	R1	AU	Trace Red and bit weakly struck as usual. George Washington. (20-35)
96	P	121/531 a	R9	MS62	10% Red obverse is unusually well struck while the reverse has been struck at least three times shifting between each strike resulting in indistinct detail. Extremely rare dies, one of just two examples I have recorded of all composition. From my April 1996 sale where it brought $1,312. (3,200-4,800)
97		125/294 a	R7	VF+	1864 Lincoln Freedom. (150-200)
98		127/201 a	R4	VF	Very weak strike as usual. Lincoln 1864 / Our Union. (50-75)
99		127/201 a	R4	EF	Very weak strike as usual, although somewhat nicer than usual. (75-100)

Civil War Patriotic Tokens

Lot #		Description	Grade		Comments / Estimate
100	P	127/294 d	R9	MS65	60% Bright struck in Copper Nickel. Rare Lincoln / Freedom variety. Ex. Larkin Wilson B&M 1996. (400-600)
101	P	127/295 a	R9	MS62	With an intriguing almost Bronzed reddish toning and shapely struck obverse. Lincoln 1864 Freedom. Very rare die combination in Copper, this is the only example I have seen offered publicly in the last twenty years. From my June 2005 sale where it realized $748.02. (800-1,200)
102		127/248 b	R3	EF	Lincoln / OK. (75-100)
103	P	127/428 a	R9	MS62	Toned. Rare C.L.R. reverse die with Lincoln obverse. Ex. C. Grellman. (800-1,200)
104		128/289 b	R3	VF	Lincoln and Union 1864.(75-100)
105		128/290 b	R4	EF	But a bit dark and porous. Lincoln and Union 1864. The dark color gives the impression of a Copper token but an edge rub confirms it is actually Brass. Even though I have seen one or two Copper examples offered I have never seen an example personally that I thought was Copper. This piece was apparently sold as Copper by Walt Korzik to the consignor in 1981. (75-100)
106		132/149 a	R5	EF	Popular Lincoln and Johnson campaign token. (150-200)
107		132/149 a	R5	VF	Scarce Lincoln / Johnson token. (100-150)
108		133/458 b	R6	EF	Trace Bright and holed as always. Scarce and popular Good For Another Heat Lincoln token. (100-150)
109		135/440 d	R9	MS62	50% Bright struck from a filed down Copper Nickel planchet with file marks still visible on most high points. (200-300)
110		136/397 a	R1	EF+	Popular Beware snake. (20-35)
111		137/395 a	R1	EF	With usual reverse weakness at center. Andrew Jackson. (20-35)
112		138/255 a	R2	VF	McClellan. (20-35)
113		140/394 a	R1	VF	Little Mack. (20-35)
114		140/394 a	R1	AU	Trace Red. Little Mack McClellan. In a NGC holder graded AU58 BN (50-75)
115		141/307 a	R1	EF+	General McClellan. (20-35)
116	P	142/349 f	R9	MS63	Toned struck in Silver. McClellan with 1864 dated display of pairs of cannons, flags and drums. Ex. Larkin Wilson B&M 1996. (1,200-1,600)
117	P	146/184 d	R9	MS64	50% Bright. Ambrose Burnside with very popular Running Hunting Dogs struck in Copper Nickel. With auction records in the $20,000 range these tokens are often considered one of the most valuable of all Civil War tokens. (9,600-12,800)
118		151/430 a	R1	VF+	Benjamin Franklin. (20-35)
119		151/430 a	R1	EF+	Franklin. (20-35)
120		155/431 a	R4	EF+	Very well struck but retoning from old cleaning. Value Me As You Peas Indiana Primitive. (50-75)
121		160/417 a	R4	EF	Tiny clip. Liberty for All Eagle and Canon. (50-75)
122	P	160/417 d	R8	MS64	40% Bright. Scarce Mossin and Marr in Copper Nickel with Eagle perched on Cannon. Ex. Larkin Wilson B&M 1996. (400-600)
123		162/338 a	R5	FINE+	But with many tiny rim nicks. Very scarce variety, just the tenth example I have seen offered. (50-75)
124		163/352 b	R9	MS60	50% Bright with tiny spots. Very rare variety struck in Brass. Ex. G. Fuld. (200-300)

627	LOW 245E	Unl	EF+ Trace Bright. Doremus, Suydam & Nixon, New York 39 Nassau Cor Liberty Street. Apparently the variety referred to but not listed in Rulau under HT259A. The most obvious difference in a missing period after NEW. Also the flower ornament below New York is larger and the E in Doremus is even to below the N of New rather than above the top half of N as pictured in Rulau. Finally perhaps accounting for its rarity there is a die crack from rim over M in Suydam through the D in Goods to the O of York. HT259B (300-400)

689 P	MILLER NY 238	MS62	20% Bright. Female Preventive Or Morsonic Amulet. Unlike the more commonly known Boyd's Battery who's wearer was promised purified blood, this Amulet was apparently worn or carried by a pregnant woman to assure a male (More Sons) rather than a female birth. This piece (as are all) was made in three layers, two brass with a lead or other white medal center. Perhaps this unusual composition was needed to generate the needed magnetic or electric fields required to perform the advertised task. One of the great rarities of the series and likely the finest known. From the Don Miller and Charles Litman collection. (4,800-6,400)

Medals

724 P Betts 52. Commemorates French victory over Dutch at the Caribbean Island of Tobago in 1677. Bronze 41mm original AU+ Trace Red. This and the following five medals are attributed to American Colonial History Illustrated By Contemporary Medals by C. Wyllys Betts. Slightly nicer than the later strike that realized $253 in my July 2006 auction. (400-600)

725 P Betts 59. Commemorates the December 1677 French attack on the Dutch fort at Tobago. A depiction of a mortar shell hitting the Dutch ammunition magazine is dramatically reenacted on the reverse with much flying debris. Bronze 41mm original MS63 Trace Red and quite attractive. An AU+ brought $467.50 in my July 2006 sale. (600-800)

726 P Betts 83. Commemorates the 1697 French capture of Carthagena Columbia from the Spanish. Reverse the treasure of the Spaniards carried away in the form of an overturned urn of money. Bronze 41mm original MS62. An AU+ realized $275 in my July 2006 sale. (400-600)

727 P Betts 216. Commemorates Admiral Vernon's 1739 victory at at Porto Bello with view of his six ships sailing toward the harbor. Copper 38mm FINE+. (200-300)

728 P Betts 256. Commemorates Admiral Vernon and Commodore Brown's 1739 victory at Porto Bello with view of his six ships sailing toward harbor. Brass 38mm FINE+. (200-300)

729 P Betts 620. Franklin Born Boston 1706 a popular French medal signed Dupre and dated 1786. The reverse legend in Latin translates He Snatched The Thunderbolt From Heaven Ant The Sceptre From Tyrants. Bronze 46mm AU with some light edge marks. Struck from the original dies with no edge marks. A bit nicer than the example that realized $307 in my July 2006 sale. (300-400)

730 P Brookgreen Gardens 1987 Number 15. The mythical and the real world by Laci de Gerenday. Bronze 76mm struck by Medallic Art Company as issued with original box. (75-100)

731 P Brookgreen Gardens 1991 Number 19. Hermit Crab by Don Everhart II. Bronze 70mm by 73mm with a crab shape struck by MACO as issued with original box. Part of an ongoing series of medals begun in 1973. Brookgreen Gardens, between Charleston and Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, is a wonderful sculpture garden. Many famous sculptor's works are presented in a beautiful natural setting including Anna Hyatt Huntington, Laura Gardin Fraser, A. A. Weinman, Paul Manship and Richard McDermott Miller. (75-100)

732 Circle of Friends 1912 Number 6. Charles Dickens and Tiny Tim by John S. Conway. Bronze 70mm as issued with some light staining struck by Davison of Philadelphia. A predecessor to The Society of Medalists the Circle of Friends periodically issued medals of renowned artists by subscription from 1909 until 1915. It is believed the mintage never exceeded 500.
